3. Recommended subjects to write about: your family, your work, your church and church activities, favorite memories, where you live, as well as prayer requests. After communicating awhile, you may ask follow up questions of your sponsored child.
4. Feel free to add a picture or two of your family.
5. Please no additional gifts at this time, whether it be monetary gifts or actual gifts. Individual gifts to a sponsored child can make other non-sponsored children feel left out. Letter writing is a gift that is appropriate and can create a lasting bond between the sponsored child and donor.
